

January 20, 2009 - Murtha Comments on President Obama's Inaugural Address

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Congressman John P. Murtha, Chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense, issued the following reaction to President Obama's Inaugural Address:

"President Obama clearly articulated the many difficulties and challenges facing both our nation and the American people. I look forward to working with our new President, and the Democratic Congress, to overcome these challenges and to move America forward."
